This policy will be implemented by the staff of Eastfield Infants and Nursery and Lacey Gardens Junior School and the SENCOs will oversee the implementation of this policy and management and strategic development of provision for SEND.

2. DEFINITION

- 2.1 The 2014 Code of Practice states that a child or young person has SEND if “they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her. Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to or different from that made generally for other children or young people of the same age.”
- 2.2 “A child or young person has a learning difficulty or disability if he or she has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or has a disability which prevents or hinders him or her from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools.”
- 2.3 A disability as defined by the Equality Act 2010 is ‘...a physical or mental impairment which has a long term (a year or more) and substantial (more than minor or trivial) adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities’.
- 2.4 Making higher quality differentiated teaching normally available to the whole class is likely to mean that fewer pupils will require such support.

3. ADMISSIONS

- 3.1 The school’s general Admissions Policy will apply. Pupils with Special Educational Needs but without Education and Health Care plans will be treated as fairly as all other applicants for admission. There are no specialisms available and there is no unit attached to either of the schools. Modifications to the school buildings include: wheelchair access via ramps, some widened doors and toilet facilities for the disabled.

Admissions for pupils with EHCPs follows the local authority consultation procedures.

4. PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

- 4.1 The school is often the first point of contact for parents who have concerns about their child’s progress and/or behaviour. As stated in the Code of Practice parents are encouraged to be fully involved in the decision-making process and understand the purpose of any intervention or programme of action.
- Parent will be encouraged to actively involved in creating and supporting the pupil’s SEND plan
 - Contact with parents will be established by telephone, electronic and postal communication
 - Records will be kept of details of all parental contact, with date
 - Parents will be encouraged to contact the school should they have any concerns

5. IDENTIFYING SEND

- 5.1 A pupil will be identified through baseline and ongoing assessments by the teachers, any concerns will be brought to the attention of the SENCO, if progress is less than expected, (in spite of high quality teaching and appropriate differentiated classroom activities). Limited progress and low attainment do not necessarily mean that a pupil has SEND and should not automatically lead to a pupil being recorded as having SEND.
- 5.2 The SENCO of the school will work with other staff to investigate concerns further and may engage the help of external agencies such as the Psychology Team or a Speech and Language Therapist/ Occupational Therapist in order to identify the area of need.
- 5.3 The Code of Practice 2014 outlines the four broad areas of need as:
- Communication and interaction
 - Cognition and learning
 - Social, emotional and mental health difficulties
 - Sensory and/or physical needs
- 5.4 A pupil with an identified area of need will be placed on the SEND Register with a personalised SEND plan, where possible created with parents and utilised by teachers and support staff to inform planning and provision. SEND plans will be reviewed at least twice a year with parents..

6. SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL PROVISION

- 6.1 Special educational provision is additional to or different from that made generally for other children or young people of the same age. Class teachers are responsible and accountable for the progress and development of all pupils in their class, including where pupils access support from teaching assistants or specialist staff. High quality teaching, differentiated for individual pupils, is the first step in responding to pupils who have or may have SEN.
- 6.2 Our schools follow the Graduated Response to supporting children with SEND and the educational provision is outlined in the school's Local Offer (See websites)
- 6.3 The SEND Register identifies children receiving additional support. This identifies children who are receiving support within school and also children who are receiving support and regular outside agency involvement.
- 6.4 The Special Educational Provision follows a four-part cycle:
1. Assess. This could involve a range of methods including, but not limited to, teachers' assessment of pupil progress, attainment and behaviour, results of standardised tests screening and profiling tests, questionnaires of parents and young people and observations.
 2. Plan. This is likely to involve the SENCo, working with teachers to plan appropriate provision, which is clearly communicated with all concerned. This may be in class support or more targeted provision. Any planning will have a clear focus on expected outcomes for the child or young person.
 3. Do. The SEND Code of Practice places the teacher at the centre of the day-to-day responsibility for working with all pupils, it is imperative that teachers work closely with any teaching assistants or specialist staff involved to plan and assess the impact of targeted interventions.
 4. Review. The progress of children who are receiving SEND Support is reviewed termly, and will form part of the school's regular tracking processes.
